SCOPE OF WORK

You or you on behalf of your client have retained Divorce Solutions, LLC to prepare a Qualified Domestic Relations Order (“QDRO”). Preparing a QDRO means we request information about you or your client and/or you or your client’s former spouse, including copies of certain court documents, we inform you of any issues that we believe need further clarification or resolution, we prepare a draft QDRO for you, your client and the Plan Administrator to review and comment. Whenever possible, we obtain a pre-approval letter from the Plan. If the plan refuses to provide pre-approval, this last step is omitted.

Along with the draft QDRO, we will send to the attorneys in this matter a letter with instructions to file the QDRO with the court and send it to the plan administrator for implementation (“Services”). The attorneys must obtain signatures, file it with the court and send a certified copy to the Plan Administrator.

Any changes to the QDRO requested by you or your client after receipt of approval by the Plan Administrator will be charged to you at our rates of $200 per hour.

It is important to note that many plans take a considerable amount of time to review a proposed draft Order. If you or your client is the alternate payee, his/her benefits are not protected until a signed court Order has been approved by the Plan Administrator. Therefore, we highly recommend immediate entry of the draft order with the Court and subsequent delivery to the Plan, as soon as the attorney or financial advisor (in those States where applicable) is in receipt of the draft QDRO from Divorce Solutions, LLC, in order to protect the client’s interest.
